Volume II

Foreword

This edition of the ALPHA aims to give to the patrons and students of Southern Area Joint High School a pictorial account of the student body, personnel, and activities of this educational institution. A yearbook of necessity only highlights. It is the sincere hope of the staff that our "picture window" of the school year 1963-64 will reflect the warmth, affection, and fellowship of the actual life we have enjoyed.

Dedication

Words cannot describe the unselfish life of Mrs. Leah Rachel Rarig.

Her actions show this to us. Mrs. Rarig is willing to do more than her share, and she is always ready to assist a student. Her career has been charity in action.

"Charity is never lost. It may meet with ingratitude, or be of no service to those on whom it was bestowed; yet it does a work of beauty and grace upon the heart of the giver."

"The deeds of charity (she has) done shall stay with us forever. Only the wealth (she has) bestowed do we keep . . ."

Middleton

"Faith and hope abound in her dedicated life."

. . . but the greatest of these is charity.

Alpha Staff

ALPHA STAFF

With great pride, the Alpha Staff presents the Alpha, 1964. We have tried to make it dynamic.

You have probably noticed changes in the layout of the yearbook, changes which we believe are endemic of the sixties, a decade of destiny.

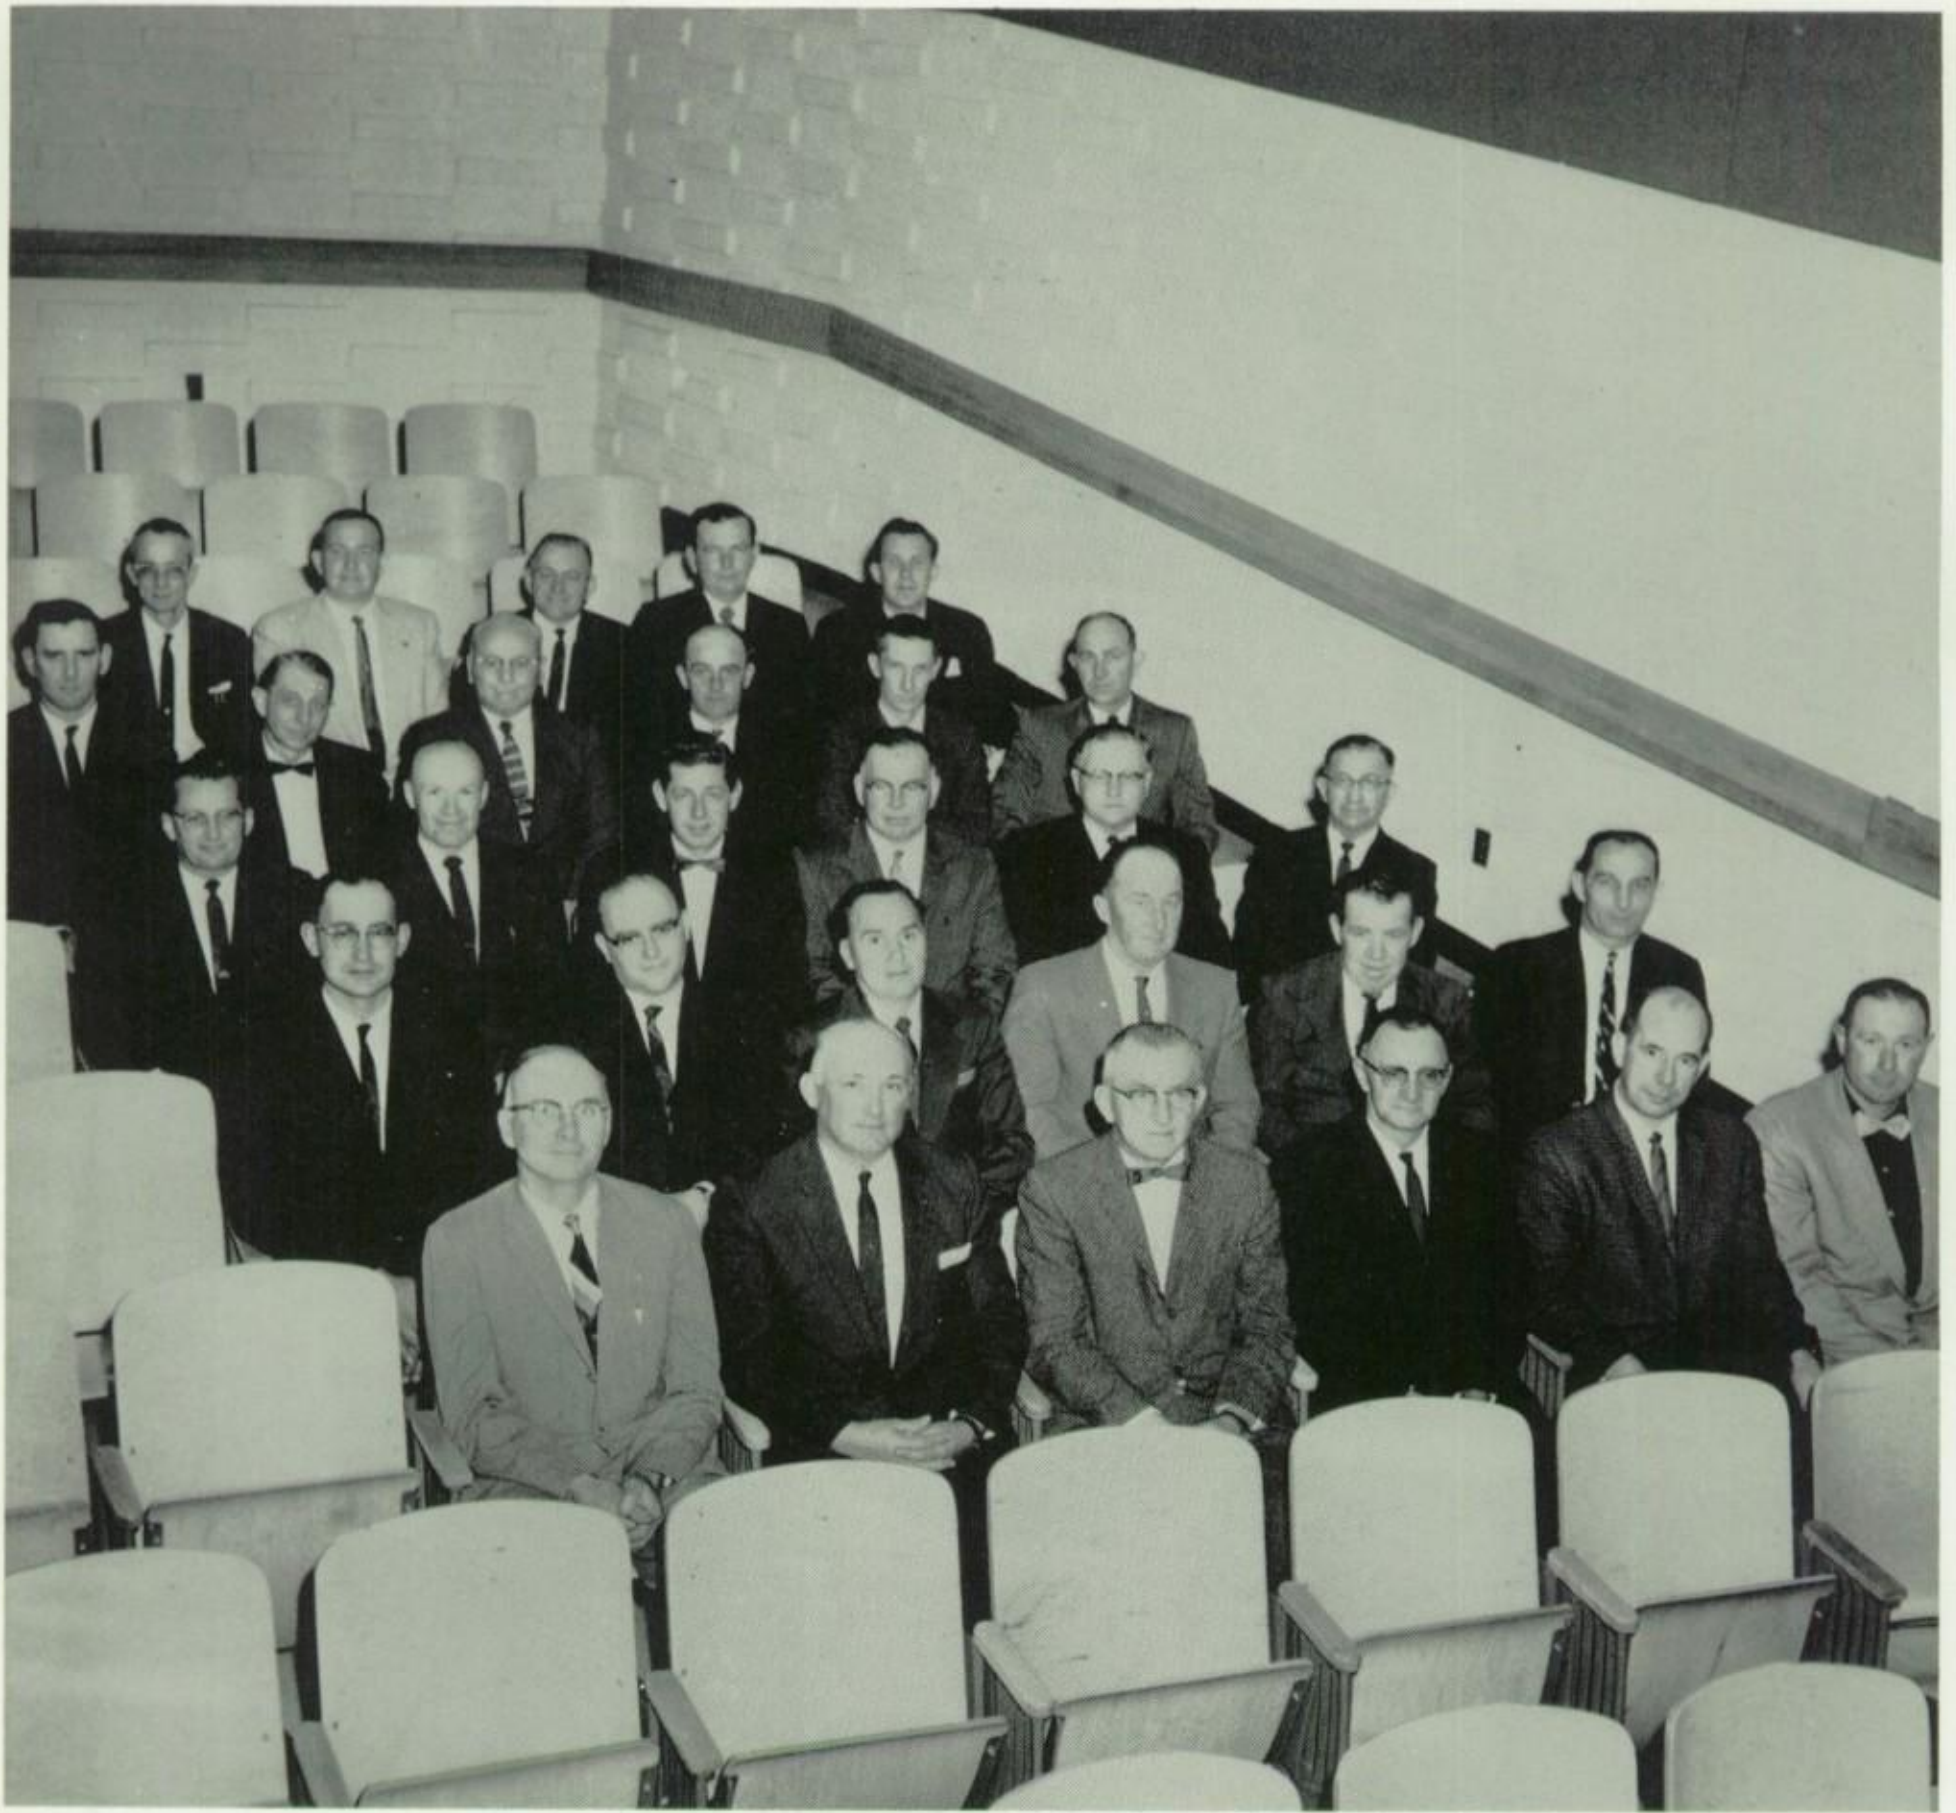

Also, the Staff has attempted to capture at least some of the school spirit which makes school days your best days.

As you read this publication, we hope this spirit will capture you, too; for only as you grasp this spirit, can you progress toward new and larger dimensions in education.

Wise counsel is an integral part of the formative years of life. It guides youth and imparts to them the ideals and goals which make life worthwhile.

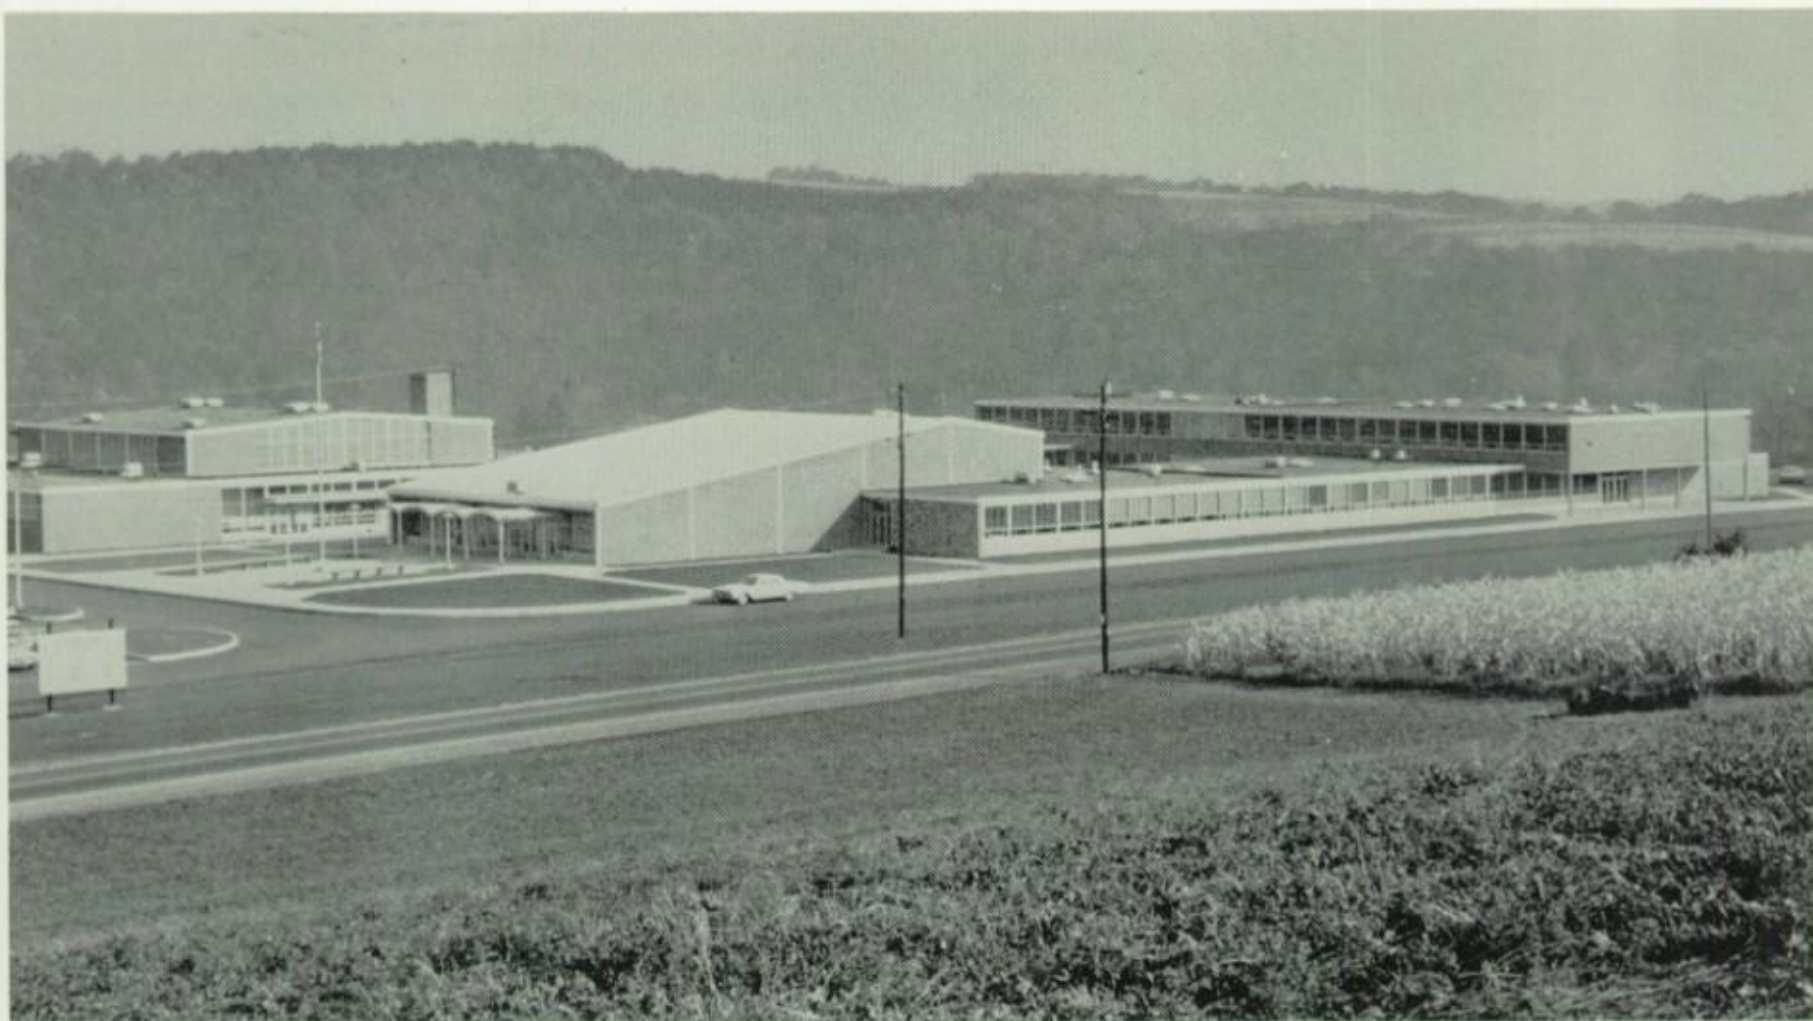

Clarendon said: "Counsel and conversation are a second education, which improve all the virtue, and correct all the vice of the first, and of nature itself." Toward this goal, our Board of Education is striving.

"Let us have our leading and our inspiration from the best."

Emerson's Lecture "The Young American"

The need of responsible educational leadership is mandatory for the 1960's because of the rapidity of change. Our administrators wrestle daily with demanding problems affecting students and faculty. The dedication and the enthusiasm of these men are exemplary, and their cheerfulness and understanding are appreciated by everyone.

Faculty

You, the teachers of Southern Area Joint High School, represent many years of collegiate training. Your cumulative years of experience are staggering, but best of all your individual loyalty, co-operation, and devotion are inspiring.

It is fitting that we, who are about to be graduated, salute you!

Tiger Marching Band

The Tiger "Football" Band made its initial appearance this year to supply music, color, spirit, and support at the football games. The band performed pre-game or half-time shows, thrilling the spectators with their performances. A two week pre-season practice and refresher rehearsals during the season served to train the group. Cheer music, drums rolling, "charge" trumpet calls, fight songs, and school songs were part of the fare served during the games. Long remembered will be the bus trips, the spinning L, center pivots, company fronts, and third quarter breaks.

The orchestra is an integral part of the music program. Swinging out each Wednesday morning, this jazz gang wakes up the school. Playing for a school dance, swinging their own dates, and playing those cool arrangements provide loads of kicks for these "Cats." This year, Benton's Valentine Hop and the County F.F.A. dance saw this group in action.

R. Wolfgang, Mr. Wolfgang, B. Hoffner, P. Grimes, R. Wolfgang.

The comedy "Abie's Irish Rose" is a typical Jewish-Irish characterization. The stern Jewish father showed the feeling of hatred toward his son, and his wife, a Catholic girl. The resulting marriage promotes hostile feelings between the parents, and they are on the verge of disowning their children.

The lovers win out, at the end of the show, "to live happily ever after."

The climax is the Christmas scene and the presentation of a baby for each of the irate fathers.

Sports

Director of Athletics

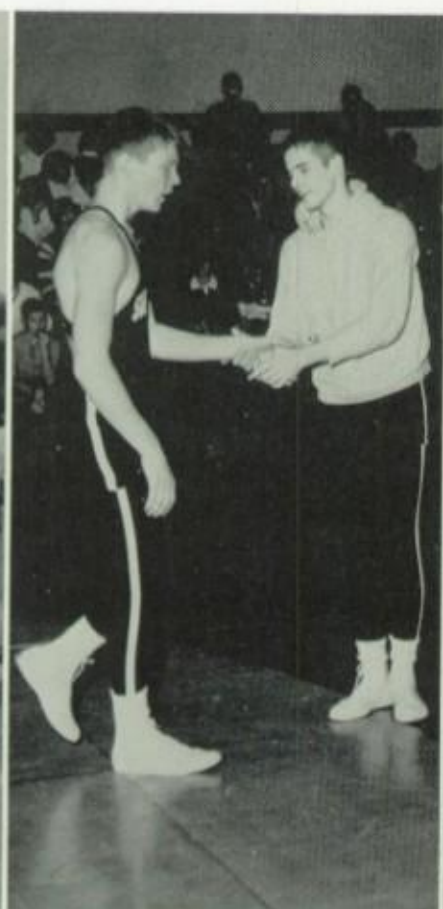

The 1963-64 school years has been the inauguration of football on a varsity level, entry of our basketball team into Susquehanna Valley League competition, official recognition of the wrestling team in league standings and the beginning of track on an interscholastic basis. An intramural basketball league was established in addition to intramural wrestling and softball.

The girls' sports program included intramural field hockey, basketball and softball. Four interscholastic basketball games gave the girls a start in interschool competition, which is expected to be expanded in the future.

Any boy or girl in Southern Area High School desirous of physical activity has ample opportunity in our diversified program of athletics.
